HOW'S YOUR HEALTH?

By Dr. W. F. Thompson

We speak of chills, but really mean That where we sleep there is no screen.

What's so gay as a trout in May?

Said Doctor McManus,
As he cancelled a call,
"The patients who can us
Don't pay, us at all."

Don't be too hard on the flapper—she's not as bad as she's painted.

When buying insurance or "going the gait,"

The older you are, the higher the rate.

If we'd stop and go fishing,
When worried with fear,
We'd find that our troubles
Would all disappear.

Hospital: Place where returning vacationists are treated for typhoid fever and malaria.

"Suction Apparatus Grows Hair on Bald Head." It takes a sucker to catch a sucker.

What prescriptions we have treasured—
Tablespoonfuls duly measured,
Punctually before we dined,
What concoctions we have tasted—
Oh, the money we have wasted,
Taking tonics for the mind!

Of one hundred sick people, seventy-five will get well without help; twenty-five will need help; some will die in spite of help.

We thus assume Dame Nature's role When first we practice birth control.

Most graves are dug in the kitchen.

"Peach Crop Promising." Promising what?

When troubles beset us
It's time to forget,
For trouble is doubled
To worry and fret.

When in need of a stimulant, a cold bath beats a cold bottle.

Disease kills people, so the best way to stay alive is to prevent disease.

Poor Willie Jones,
How thin his legs!
Poor Willie needs
More milk and eggs.

Insurance: What we could have had and didn't want; what we want and can't get.

Sticky fly paper is all right, but we have never been able to make it catch sticky flies.

Throw away your pills and potions. Better dope is in the ocean's saline-scented, bracing air. Notwithstanding advertisers, You don't need these appetizers When Nature's tonic's everywhere.

It's the fruit of our dissipation that gets us into trouble—you recall that Adam got into trouble fooling with fruit.

NO BIRD

In what are sometimes referred to as the good old days a Swede came down from the woods and, entering a saloon, asked for a drink of good old squirrel whisky.

The bartender said: "We have no squirrel whisky, but we have some good Old Crow."
"Oh, Yudas Priest!" said the Swede. "I don't want to fly; I just want to hop around a little."

HE'D GO FOR TOOLS

Even certain professors, who are supposed to be immune from commercial inducements, are sometimes financially overcautious. A party of tourists were watching Professor X as he exhumed the wrapped body of an ancient Egyptian.
"Judging from the utensils about him," remarked the professor, "this mummy must have been an Egyptian plumber."
"Wouldn't it be interesting," said a romantic young lady, "if we could bring him to life?"
"Interesting, but a bit risky," returned Professor X. "Somebody might have to pay him for his time."

"Better Clothes for Boys"

A Boy Deserves Good Graduation Clothes

BUD SAYS: "It's an event when a boy graduates from girls' clothes and graduates into his first regular boy's suit. But graduating from grammar school is something different."

"Dad says that eight years of study by a lively kid that's none too crazy about sitting still is worth at least a nifty new outfit—first longs if a fellow is big enough."

"I hope some of my relatives see this ad so they'll know that nothing would please me better than a graduating present from THE BOYS' SHOP—something nifty to wear."
